This game is very hard. The AI's must be set to hard and you cant change it. Its mostly luck. Wouldnt reccomend, unless you are very lucky.. When I first saw this game, I thought it would be just another run of the mill mmorpg, but after investing over 7,000 hours in this game, I can truly say this is one of the best fps experiences Ive had since SMITE. The chracters feel so fleshed out and you can really connect with them, which isnt a very popular trend in survival games like this. And I mean, for a card game, it really does feel like a whole different game to Hearthstone. I truly believe that blizzard has taken there company very seriously, and the result are masterpieces like this one. So if youre looking for a competitive dungeon crawl with great gameplay, I cant recommend a better driving game. 10/10. ripley vac ban soon
